We kindly request that you understand and respect our need for a cancellation policy in order to best serve you and all of our valued patients. We understand that life can be busy and full of the unexpected; however, the more notice you can provide our office the better. Our policy is as follows:

Less than 48 hours' notice..... $45.00 will be charged to your account

Failure to show $60.00 will be charged to your account

Providing ample notice will give us a greater chance of rescheduling you to a time that is convenient, and it helps us have enough time to fill the empty appointment slot. Thank you for your consideration and cooperation.
